STAND

WAS INTOXICATED.

Phillip Bonner, employed at the race track, was arraigned on the charge of drunkenness. He pleaded not guilty and Officer Russell testified that in his opinion Bonner was drunk, he having fallen out of a bootblack's chair about 8 o'clock in the morning.

Bonner explained that he had had single drink of whiskey and had then gone to the stand for a "shine." In bracing his feet on the foot-rests, one of the rests suddenly came apart at a broken place, precipitating him to he ground. He declared his intentions of reimbursing the owner at the ime and offered a dollar for the dam-The owner wanted two dollars and had him arrested when Bonner old him he had only the dollar. The city attorney put the defendant through a few quiet gymnastics while on the stand to determine his present condition, all of which Bonner performed to the satisfaction of the court. The udge stated that he hardly thought the man was drunk enough to punish especially so early in the morning, and ordered him discharged.

Charles Bryan, also charged with drunkenness, took heart over the dismissal of Bonner and promptly enter ed a plea of not guilty. Sergeant Critchlow stated that Bryan was drunk when brought to the station Monday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. The sergeant was then questioned as to his standing as a judge of drunkenness and, after some time, managed to qualify in that capacity, Bryan stated that he was blacksmith on Monday, and in fact still considered himself one of that profession. He said he had worked hard Monday forenoon and had gone out at noon for a light unch. His arrest at 3 o'clock was a conundrum which he tried hard to explain but failed. A Fair Opinion.

The constitutional dislike to giving an opinion on any subject, which had always distinguished the Gorham family, reached its fullest development in Abel Gorham. He could scarcely be persuaded to express his mind freely about anything, still less about any person. Yet he managed to preserve a reputation for keen discernment.

"I really wish you'd tell me what you think of young Hobbs," said one of the summer residents. "Come. Mr. Gorham, I mean to give the young man a lift if he's worth it."

"M-m," said Mr. Gorham, with his usual deliberation. "When you come to lifting anybody that can be lifted 's wuth lifting, seems to me. As to Pete Hobbs, I'm expecting he'll turn out just about such a sort of a man I take him to be. I don't know as I'm called upon to speak any plainer'n that."-Youth's Companion.

"Hey, boss, stop!" From his seat under a tree the tramp ran out into the hot white road and hailed the red car, frantically. "Well, what is it?" the owner asked, in an ill-natured tone, as he halted. "Jest look-a-here, boss," said the tramp. And he extracted a huge nail from the tire of the hind wheel and held it up in horror.

"Half a mile more, boss, and she'd a-gone right through. Lucky I noticed her shinin' in the sun. I've saved ye close on a 100 plunks, boss, and no mistake."

"It might have ruined the tire, that nail," said the owner. "I'm much obliged to you." The tramp looked up changed hands.

Then the red car droned on its way and the tramp palmed the nail again for a blue landaulette that he saw in the distance.-Minneapolis Tribune.

Convention City Will Be Made to Take Notice of the Boys From "719"-Uniforms for 100.

The special committee, in charge of the arranging of details connected with the Elks' annual reunion, to be neld in Los Angeles in July, met at the club rooms of the local lodge last night and decided on several details which are of importance to both the members of the Ogden herd and the general public.

The home lodge boys have determined to combine business with pleasire during the trip and it is expected hat this city will benefit greatly as a result of their efforts.

Thousands of pamphlets, containng extensive descriptions of the natural beauties: the mineral resources and possibilities; the agricultural the prosperity of industries and manufactures and the transportation facilities will be carried to the Southern Coast city, to be distributed o the thousand of Elks and other visitors who will journey westward at that time from all sections of the United States.

A concerted effort will be made to induce delegations and individuals to stop off at Ogden on their return trip

The next night a man was seen prowling about the halls of the hotel, but he managed to escape before an the year are quickly relieved with alarm could be given. Monday night one of the lady roome's discovered a man skulking about the grounds in the shadow of the building apparently seeking a favorable vantage point to enter the hotel.

As to Sneezing.

Why should a person sneeze? Why does almost every one believe that to sneeze is to catch cold? Sneezing is an explosive expulsion of air through the nasal passages and mouth; but what causes it and what are its results? It increases the circulation It clears the head. When you sneeze always hold Don't your head straight in front. twist it to the left or right. Never sneeze over your shoulder. You are liable to burst a blood vessel.

Some say that sitting in a draft will cause sneezing. In former days it was a very polite custom to take snuff to encourage a sneeze. Mer had their bejeweled snuff boxes and carried their handkerchiefs in their cuffs. No doubt a sneeze was originally designed to expel irritating materials from the upper air passages. In the act a powerful expiratory effort is made, the vocal cords are kept shut till the pressure in the chest, has risen high, and sweetest charm of woman, the scorn | air is then suddenly allowed to escape upward, being directed into the back of the nose by the soft palate.
